To Print Or Not To Print
Quite often The Times and Democrat receives press releases from government agencies which, under their own regulations, have taken action against various businessmen. The newspaper is expected to print them, whether it is a charge by the Internal Revenue Service that Mr. So-and-So has falsified his tax returns or from the Department of Agriculture charging a grocer with permitting the purchase of ineligible commodities or products in the food stamp program.

This newspaper has consistently declined to publish such articles. As is pointed out in the January issue of Public Service magazine, many hard working, tax paying citizens who have been taught since childhood that the protective cloak of presumption of innocence until proven guilty is a basic constitutional "freedom," have been shocked and frightened by an inadvertent encounter with the enforcement activities of government regulatory agencies.

Lawyers understand that there is a great chasm between the rules of evidence and rules of procedure which rise to protect charged with a crime of violence, or any felony, and the rules that operate when a person is charged with violating the regulations of a government agency. The presumption of innocence becomes no more than a vague shadow in the case of administrative agencies which are empowered to make and enforce their own regulations.

This is because the "complaint" of an enforcement agent is usually regarded as sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case which, if not overcome by contradictory evidence produced by the accused citizen, is sufficient to establish guilt in the mind of the agency. In agency activities, the burden of proving innocence is on the accused. In a court of law, the burden is on the government to prove guilt.

As Public Service sees it, most administrative cases turn, not on the evidence but on the "credibility" of the witness and the evidence. Given a choice, the hearing officer, being human and aware of the source of his pay check, will be inclined to believe the complaining agent who draws his pay check from the same government agency. That is why it is usually futile to attempt to establish innocence in the face of a government agency complaint. The presumption of innocence, as a practical matter, becomes an absurdity, the magazine charges.

That is one of the reasons why this newspaper declines to publicize charges in the case of quasi-judicial agencies. We would prefer to miss an unimportant bit of questionable news than to injure a person or a business by publishing news not based on a matter of public record.—Orangeburg (S.C.) Times and Democrat

Showers Due in Arkansas Today

Thundershowers are expected to develop in the northern portion of Arkansas this afternoon or tonight.

The precipitation may move southward Tuesday.

Not much temperature change is expected in the state through Tuesday. Highs today and Tuesday were forecast in the mid 70s to mid 80s.

Lows tonight should be in the 50s to low 60s.

Partly cloudy skies were the rule Sunday with a few showers developing across the northern portion of the state during the afternoon. The cloudiness began dissipating soon after sunset with clear skies throughout most of the night.

Overnight lows include Fayetteville 50, Harrison 54, Jonesboro 55, Pine Bluff 56, Texarkana 60, Memphis 54, Little Rock 53 and Fort Smith 57.

Capt. Kotuc to Trial for My Lai

By WILLIAM L. CHAZE
Associated Press Writer
FT. McPHERSON, Ga. (AP) — Capt. Eugene M. Kotuc, an intelligence officer charged with maiming and assaulting a Viet Cong suspect after U.S. troops assaulted the village of My Lai in 1968, goes on trial today.

Kotuc, 37, a stocky, baldish paratrooper from Humboldt, Neb., faces a maximum sentence of 10 years imprisonment if convicted by a military jury of seven career Army officers chosen earlier.

He is the fourth soldier to be court-martialed on criminal charges arising from an alleged massacre at May Lai and its aftermath. Two enlisted men were acquitted of assault and Lt. William L. Calley Jr. was convicted of murdering 22 civilians during the operation.

The Army said Kotuc did not take part in the actual assault. But, as the intelligence officer for Task Force Baker, he was assigned to interrogate suspects afterwards. The task force provided the assault troops for the operation.

Kotuc is accused of maiming a suspected Viet Cong during an interrogation by cutting off part of a finger and assaulting him by cutting him on the neck. The Army alleges the crimes took place about two miles from My Lai, several hours after the infantry attack. The captain's civilian lawyer, former Nebraska Gov. Robert Crosby, 60, said Kotuc will maintain in his trial that the tip of the suspect's finger was accidentally cut off.

3 Accidents Reported on Week-end

Three automobile accidents occurred over the weekend in Hope, all at street intersections, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Friday when cars driven by Martin J. Timmons of Texarkana and Mrs. Rosalee Cole of Hope collided at South Fulton and 6th Streets. Mrs. Cole was charged with failure to yield the right of way by Officer William Haltom.

At 6:50 p.m. Friday, cars driven by Sherman Flenory of Hope and Willie Hook, Jr. of Little Rock, collided at the intersection of West Avenue B and North Washington Street. Hooks was charged with failure to yield the right of way and Flenory was charged with an expired drivers license by investigating Officer Haltom.

James B. Fincher of Hope ran into a parked car owned by Samuel J. Huckabee of Hope, on West 6th Street at 4:45 a.m. Sunday, causing considerable damage to both vehicles. Fincher was charged with hazardous driving by Officer Jesse Brown.

Hope Police Dept. weekend report: 5 traffic violations, 9 license violations, 10 for drunkenness, 3 liquor violations, 5 driving while intoxicated, 1 carrying concealed weapon, 2 disturbing peace, 4 for gaming and 2 for log book not current. This makes a total of 98 accidents so far this year with 27 injuries and one death.

Governor Sad Over Defeated Bills

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Saturday that he had not expected the 1971 General Assembly to pass all of the administration bills, but he said he was disappointed that two bills he was particularly interested in did not pass.

The governor said he regretted that the kindergarten bill and a bill to create a comprehensive merit system for state employees failed to pass the legislature.

Bumpers praised the role of the league in the past session in seeing that bills were sponsored and passed in the legislature.

Mao Tse-tung, Nixon, Now That the Ice Is Broken, Want to Meet

NEW YORK (AP) — Communist China's Chairman Mao Tse-tung wants to meet with President Nixon in Peking and Nixon is "thirsting" to visit China, according to Life Magazine.

Edgar Snow, an American writer who has known Mao for years, quotes the Chinese leader as saying in an interview last December that "the problems between China and the U.S.A. would have to be solved with Nixon."

Nixon said in another interview that no stable world order was possible without mainland China, according to Life's White House columnist, Hugh

Rogers Takes Off for Middle East Congress Turns to War and Poverty

By BROOKS JACKSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Militant war foes and poverty lobbyists turned their attention to the halls of Congress today after the weekend's huge and peaceful Capitol rally, which a police official called the biggest in history.

Kicking off a two-week campaign of planned nonviolent disruption, they scheduled calls on congressmen and 24-hour sessions with senators in a "people's lobby" against the war and for expanded welfare aid.

Sunday, the continuing anti-war campaign saw police quietly lead away 124 persons whose Quaker peace vigil at the White House grew beyond the 100 persons allowed.

Police arrested only those who refused to leave when asked, and charged them with crossing police lines, which carries a $25 maximum fine. The so-called "spring offensive" of antiwar actions is coordinated by the People's Coalition for Peace and Justice, which helped put on the big rally Saturday.

The People's Coalition is a loose, diverse group with wider aims and a more militant cast than its ally, the National Peace Action Coalition. NPAC seeks an end to the war through huge rallies and the People's Coalition stresses massive civil disobedience and non-violent action for peace and social justice; specifically, an end to the war by Aug. 28, a $6,500 guaranteed yearly income for a family of four and freedom for "political prisoners."

Sunday, NPAC co-ordinator Jerry Gordon claimed anew the Saturday march and rally at the Capitol drew half a million persons. Police stuck officially with Chief Jerry V. Wilson's estimate of 200,000, but civilian information officer Bill Jepsen said it seemed much larger.

"I would say from my knowledge that there were more here than ever before," he said. "We had liaison men out and they said it just dwarfed anything they'd seen."

Newsmen who covered the demonstration shared Jepsen's assessment. The previous high attendance is generally conceded to be the 320,000 estimated by police at an antiwar rally here Nov. 15, 1969.

One high administration official, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, accepted the police crowd estimate and downplayed the importance of that figure.

He added: "I think a lot of them (demonstrators) are well motivated, but confused. But I would call their attention to the fact that it is becoming too fashionable in this country for our citizens to extol the virtues of enemy nations, of very repressive, totalitarian societies, while they run down the decision of our own elected officials."

President Nixon, who spent the demonstration day at his mountain retreat in nearby Maryland, has made no comment on the protest.

Nixon is quoted by the magazine as having said the world will face mortal danger if America does not approach Peking because, in the President's view, Russia will not warm up to the Chinese.

Nixon decided to "extend the hand of friendship" to the Chinese last year, during the Middle East crisis, Sidesy continues. "If there is anything I want to do before I die, it is to go to China," Nixon said, according to Sidesy.

Rogers Takes Off for Middle East

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Secretary of State William P. Rogers flew to London today en route to the Middle East, where he hopes to revive hopes of a settlement between Israel and its Arab enemies.

The way ahead is difficult because neither Egypt nor Israel, the principal antagonists, show any sign of softening positions that have deadlocked peace negotiations.

Rogers' aim, as a starter, is to make arrangements for the reopening of the Suez Canal by a partial Israeli withdrawal from the east bank. But Israel wants Egypt to stay on the west side of the canal. Egypt wants the Suez Canal reopening as part of a deal for complete Israeli withdrawal from all Arab territory occupied in the 1967 war.

On his two-week journey, Rogers will attend a Southeast Asia Treaty Organization meeting in London and fly to Ankara for a Central Treaty Organization session that ends Saturday.

Rogers then will go to Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Lebanon, Egypt and Israel before returning to Washington about May 9.

Accused Prosecutor Must Stand Trial Without Immunity

CHICAGO (AP) — State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan must waive immunity from possible prosecution, qualified sources indicate, if he is to testify today before a special grand jury investigating a police raid in which two Black Panther leaders were killed.

Hanrahan has been unavailable for comment since a neighborhood newspaper chain reported over the weekend that a majority of the 23 jurors voted to indict him for obstructing justice after the Dec. 4, 1969, raid by state's attorney's police. The jurors, composing the fourth official body to investigate the raid, were scheduled to reconvene this afternoon. It was not known whether Hanrahan, who had refused earlier, would appear.

A source close to the proceedings, which began last December, said Hanrahan was "requested to testify if he signed an immunity waiver." Under law, the source said, if a person who is a target of investigation is called before the grand jury and has not signed the immunity waiver, he is immune from prosecution or indictment for any of the matters on which his testimony touches.

The special grand jury was sworn in last Dec. 7. It is the second Cook County Grand Jury empaneled to investigate the pre-dawn raid in which Fred Hampton, Illinois chairman of the Black Panthers, and Mark Clark, a party organizer from Peoria, were shot to death.

The first county grand jury indicted seven other persons in the apartment on charges of attempted murder, but the charges later were dropped by Hanrahan. He said the indictments were based, in part, on erroneous ballistics evidence.

Nixon Urges Confidence in Business

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon assured businessmen today the nation is entering a solid and sustainable expansion and, with the rate of price increases cut in half, that "the worst of inflation is behind us."

Nixon repeatedly hammered on the theme of confidence in an address to the 59th annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce in Constitution Hall.

With militant antiwar demonstrators in the capital organizing two weeks of protest against the Vietnamese conflict, Nixon assured the country's largest business organization:

"First, you have a right to be confident that this nation will reject the counsel of the new isolationists."

"We are ending our involvement in the war in Southeast Asia in a way that will permit us to stay involved in building a full generation of peace throughout the world."

But the basic theme of the President was a declaration of confidence in the strength of the economy. "In dealing with the future of this country, if you want to be a realist, you have to be an optimist," he said.

"... You can be confident that America's economy will continue its vigorous expansion without bringing on a new round of inflation."

The facts show that we are winning the fight against rising prices. In 1969, inflation was roaring along at a rate higher than 6 per cent a year; in 1970 we managed to reverse that dangerous trend, and prices rose 5.5 per cent; in the first quarter of this year, prices rose at the annual rate of 2.7 per cent, the lowest rise in four years.

"We have cut the rate of inflation in half."

Israel Shows Off New Engines of War Furnished by U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
In advance of its 23rd independence anniversary, Israel made public for the first time Sunday some of its new American military equipment, including amphibious artillery and a personnel carrier that could cross the Suez Canal in any fresh outbreak of hostilities.

Displayed to newsmen were the M109 self-propelled cannon, the M113 armored personnel carrier and the Sikorsky CH53 combat helicopter. All were shown last week, but newsmen were not allowed to publish their reports until Sunday night.

A Katyusha rocket launcher also was rolled out for newsmen as an example of war booty captured from Egypt during the 1967 war.

An Israeli military spokesman said both the artillery piece and the personnel carrier were "able to cross water obstacles of any depth."

Moscow has supplied Egypt with amphibious troop transport, according to recent news reports, and the Egyptians reportedly have staged water maneuvers in the canal area.

Turnpike Blocked, 97 Arrested

MOUNT LAUREL, N.J. (AP) — Ninety-seven persons were arraigned today on charges of disorderly conduct arising from a massive "stall-in" on the New Jersey Turnpike by demonstrators returning from a peace rally in Washington.

Those arrested, mostly young persons whom police said remained on the four-lane highway after traffic began moving again about 11 p.m. Sunday, were taken to the municipal court house here. Thirteen cars and one bus were towed from the scene, police said.

The New Jersey residents, 28 in all, were released on their own recognizance. Others were held in lieu of $50 bail and taken to jails in Mount Holly and Camden.

Twenty of the youths were able to make bail and were released pending a hearing, tentatively set for May 19, court officials.

Police estimated that about 1,000 persons left their cars at the peak of the demonstration, built a bonfire, drank beer, shouted antiwar slogans and stopped cars behind them for about five hours.

Witnesses on the scene said the demonstration seemed to "just happen" with no visual evidence of organization.

But a girl who identified herself as Abi Eddy of New Britain, Conn., said the idea for a "stall-in" was formulated in a roadside restaurant in Delaware. She said about 50 persons had sat on the floor of the restaurant but left under orders from Delaware police.

Jobless Claims Show Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department said today latest figures show a substantial drop in new claims for unemployment insurance due to a pickup in economic activity, but the total receiving jobless pay was still considerably above a year ago.

The report said new claims in the week ended April 17 totaled 257,900. This was 20,600 below the preceding week and 81,100 less than the corresponding weeks a year ago.

However, the total number of Americans receiving unemployment insurance the week ended April 10 totaled 2,375,700. This was 31,300 lower than the previous week but 637,200 more than a year earlier and the insured unemployment rate remained unchanged at 4.5 per cent. A year ago it was 3.3 per cent, the report said.

Observers say that by displaying its own amphibious strike capability, Israel is warning the Arabs that its forces can also cross the 197-foot-wide waterway separating the two opposing armies.

The armor-shielded, $5 million CH53 helicopter, a vital troop carrier in the Indochina war, is believed the most modern aircraft in service with the Israelis. Nicknamed the Jolly Green Giant it was described as "the most maneuverable in the world" by an Israeli pilot who put it through its paces.

The pilot said it had adapted well to desert conditions in the Middle East. The CH53 is one of the world's largest helicopters, has a maximum range of 700 miles and can carry 30 combat-ready troops or 8.5 tons of cargo.

Military men say the self-propelled cannon adds a new dimension to Israeli offensive capability, providing close mobile support for advancing troops.

The M113 armored personnel carrier will replace Israel's World War II-vintage troop carriers.

Local Right to Halt U.S. Housing O.K.

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled 5 to 3 today that the states may allow voters to veto public housing projects in their communities.

The decision, given by Justice Hugo L. Black, approved a 1950 amendment to the California Constitution that requires endorsement by a majority of the voters before housing projects need be constructed.

Black said the provision did not aim at a racial minority and insures that all the people of the community will have a voice in the decision.

In other actions today, the court:

—Acted to maintain aid to jobless workers while their former employers challenge their eligibility.

—Appointed U.S. Circuit Judge Clifford O'Sullivan to referee a dispute between Arkansas and Mississippi involving their mutual Mississippi River boundary.

—Upheld the power of Congress to strike at organized crime by making loan-sharking a federal offense.

—Upheld the government's right to grant informal permits of admission to some 50,000 Mexicans entering the United States for daily or seasonal employment.

—Refused to hear the case of an Austin, Tex., man convicted for possession of one marijuana cigarette butt. It was found by police who searched him without a warrant on the basis of an anonymous telephone call about "hippie types."

"Provisions for referendums demonstrative a devotion to democracy, not to bias, discrimination, or prejudice," Black wrote.

Withdrawal of Troops Ahead of Schedule

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troop strength in Vietnam dropped to 281,400 men last week, the U.S. Command announced today. The total was 2,600 below the ceiling set by President Nixon for May 1 and the lowest level in nearly five years.

Official sources said they anticipated strength would drop about 274,000 by May 1, or 10,000 below the ceiling.

Nixon has announced a seventh round of troop cutbacks to reduce the authorized ceiling to 184,000 by next Dec. 1.

Court Does a Switch on Killing Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court did a turnabout today and affirmed the second-degree murder conviction of Maybell Rooks.

Mrs. Rooks was convicted last May 1 in the Oct. 2, 1969 shooting of her husband, Marvin, in the backyard of their home near Bay.

Several weeks ago, the high court reversed her conviction and 21-year prison sentence.

Mrs. Rooks, who pleaded innocent, testified that she fired the shot in self-defense as her husband, after threatening her life, advanced upon her in an intoxicated condition.

The state presented the testimony of a police officer who said, however, that while in custody Mrs. Rooks said that her husband was walking or running away when she pulled the trigger.

The Supreme Court had held that the introduction of the officer's testimony violated the woman's rights since she was without legal counsel at the time of the remark, but on rehearing requested by the state attorney general's office the court changed its mind in light of subsequent rulings by the United States Supreme Court.

On Feb. 24 of this year, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that even though procedural requirements have not been met, the statement of a defendant while in custody may be used to impeach the defendant's testimony in court. That ruling said, however, that such a statement in custody could not be presented in court as part of the state's basic case.

"Therefore, in the case at bar, we hold that it was permissible for the state to test the credibility of Mrs. Rooks' trial testimony by cross-examination and by the rebuttal testimony of

2 to Girls State From Emmet

Vicki Faulkner and Lou Lessig of Emmet High School have been chosen as delegates to Girls State. They are sponsored by the Emmet P.T.A.

Vicki is the 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Faulkner, Rt. 2, Emmet. She was chosen by the faculty among the Top Ten Honor Students, she is co-editor of the Echo Staff, reporter of FHA and 4-H Club, has played basketball 5 years.

Lou is the 16 year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ray Lessig, Emmet. This is Lou's first year to attend Emmet High School. She attended Stamps High School where she was member of the band for four years and was selected all-region band for two years. She has been a member of FHA for 3 years, in 4-H Club, member of Civil Air Patrol and is business manager of the Echo Staff.

The Camp will be June 6-12 at Camp Robinson. This is an Americanism and Good Citizenship project and some 1100 girls will attend the "Government in training" program. For one week the girls will become citizens in the mythical "Arkansas Girls State", taking an active part in the political life of the Girls State Community—Campaigning and electing City, County and State Officials. She will learn the operation of government in this State by participating in party precinct caucuses, through the election of a Governor and Inauguration of State Officers.

Speakers on the various levels of State, County, and City government will enlighten the young women of their responsibilities. Director of Arkansas Girls State is Miss Claudia Kuykendall of Conway, Arkansas. She will be assisted by a staff of 90 Counselors.

Mary Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris, was elected to the Girls State.

Weevils Threat to Alfalfa

From Agricultural Extension Service

HOPE—Alfalfa weevils, if allowed to go unchecked, may destroy the first cutting of alfalfa, says Calvin J. Caldwell, County Extension Agent.

Although Hempstead County is not noted for alfalfa production, farmers who grow this crop have been faced with trying to eradicate the weevil. At least 90 per cent of the alfalfa fields of this county were infested, the county agent said. This was the first time some producers had been bothered with weevils.

The local Extension agents were called on to assist with identification, determining if infestations were heavy enough to justify an application of insecticide, and for recommendations to control the pest.

Caldwell says that the weevils are not rare difficult to control, but advises farmers to scout their fields for a possible re-infestation. A second application may be necessary to protect the crop. Farmers may contact their local county Extension agent for recommended insecticides to use.

Genocide Treaty Is Denounced

WASHINGTON (AP) — George D. Aiken, dean of Senate Republicans and one of the most respected members of Congress, says the treaty to outlaw genocide is extremely misleading and very nearly a fraud on the American people.

"It does not do what people have been given to understand it would do—and that is to assure fair treatment to minority races in any part of the world or in any country which has already ratified the treaty," the Vermont Republican said in an interview.

Aiken is ranking GOP member of the Foreign Relations Committee and was in the minority when the panel endorsed the 22-year-old treaty by 10-4 late last month.

The treaty, passed by the United Nations General Assembly in 1948, would make it an international crime to attempt the destruction of entire national, ethnic, racial or religious groups.

It was submitted to the Senate in 1949 by President Harry S. Truman but the committee refused to act on it. President Nixon re-submitted it to the Senate in February 1970.

Aiken maintained there are "a lot of things which this treaty does not do."

"It does not alter the rules of warfare, or the obligation of parties to the Geneva Conventions on the treatment of prisoners of war and protection of civilian persons in time of war."

"It does not apply to civil wars as such."

"It does not apply to persecution such as the currently headlined Soviet treatment of the Jewish population."

"It does not apply to discrimination, racial slurs, insults and the like."

"It does not apply to voluntary population control measures. And, this is important, it does not apply to the past...."

"It doesn't don any of them—it's extremely misleading."

Cong Doubles Attack on S. Vietnam

By GEORGE ESPER

associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The enemy doubled his attacks in South Vietnam over the weekend and inflicted heavy losses on the South Vietnamese and their American allies. One attack early today wrecked the biggest ammunition dump in the central part of the country for the third time since January.

Communiques and field reports said at least 49 South Vietnamese were killed, 168 were wounded and more than 100 houses were destroyed in attacks since Saturday. The casualties included five civilians killed and 56 wounded.

The U.S. Command reported seven Americans killed, three missing, and 60 wounded. Two U.S. heavy duty bulldozers, two Sheridan tanks, one armored personnel carrier, a UH1 helicopter and an F4 Phantom fighter-bomber were lost.

Only 54 North Vietnamese were reported killed.

The attacks were concentrated in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon and along a 300-mile stretch of the coastal lowlands from Cam Ranh to Da Nang.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported 54 "enemy-initiated incidents" between 6 a.m. Sunday and 6 a.m. Monday, the highest number this month and more than double the average of 24 a day earlier in April.

The U.S. Command announced five "significant" rocket and mortar attacks on American forces during the night, the most in nearly three weeks.

Viet Cong mortars set off scores of 500-pound bombs at the coastal Qui Nhon ammunition dump 265 miles northeast of Saigon. The exploding bombs wiped out civilian houses in a 2½-mile radius and shattered buildings of the U.S. Support Command.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court ordered today that graduates of the old Arkansas Law School may take any of the next three state bar examinations.

After that, however, graduates of the school who already have failed three or more times would not be eligible again.

The Arkansas Law School at Little Rock graduated its last class in 1965 and ceased operations.

The Arkansas Bar Association adopted a rule that no graduate of the old school could take the bar examination after 1970.

However, the court failed to publish the rule as an order. Because of the oversight, the court held March 29 that Solomon Feldman Jr. of Helena, a 1965 graduate of the old school, could not be denied another opportunity to take the examination.

There is no limit on the number of examinations graduates of existing accredited law schools can take the state bar examination.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court affirmed today the murder conviction of Austin L. Boyette, a white man, in the death of an elderly Negro woman.

Boyette was convicted of second-degree murder and sentenced to 21 years in prison in the fatal beating June 24, 1970, of Ella Lewis, 80, of Hampton.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office said today that the state Cancer Commission did not properly transfer money to the American Cancer Society.

The opinion by Asst. Atty. Gen. James A. Neal went to Mrs. William G. Utterback, director of the commission.

In another opinion, Deputy Atty. Gen. Henry Ginger said that State Hospital Supt. George Jackson could contract with the federal government to establish accounts composed of money from the Veterans Administration to pay for burial of veterans who die while in the care of the State Hospital.

Ginger also said in an opinion to Jimmie Lou Fisher, treasurer of Greene County, that a county treasurer is not required to keep his office in the courthouse under all circumstances.

Highways Claim 3 in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three persons lost their lives on Arkansas' highways this past weekend. All three victims were killed in separate accidents.

The Associated Press weekend fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Mrs. Lucille Smith, 65, of Oak Grove, Mo., was killed Saturday in a three-vehicle crash on U.S. 65 near Harrison.

State Police said Mrs. Smith was the driver of a car that crossed the center line and struck a truck.

A Rogers man, James Willingham, 23, was killed Saturday while riding in a boat towed by a truck. Police said the truck went out of control and the boat was thrown off its trailer on top of Willingham.

Miss Beverly Wells Burnett, 17, of Wynne was killed Saturday when a front-loading tractor went out of control and struck her car head-on on U.S. 64 near Marion.

Fort Smith Bedroom Slayer Held

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A 20-year-old Fort Smith man is being held in connection with the fatal shooting of Linda Aldridge, 19, of Fort Smith Sunday.

Police said they arrested the man near the community of Center (Sebastian County) Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Aldridge's body was discovered after her mother, Mrs. Vita Marie Long, and a sister awoke to find a man standing in a bedroom in their apartment.

Mrs. Long told police that the man held a gun on them and took a small amount of money. Mrs. Long said the man told her where Mrs. Aldridge could be found.

Police said they found Mrs. Aldridge sitting on the floor of an adjoining room, wearing nightclothes. She had been shot in the head with a small caliber pistol, police said.

Jackson and Yorty Eye N. Hampshire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two potential candidates for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination say they will visit New Hampshire before deciding whether to enter that state's presidential primary.

Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles is visiting the state this week to take political soundings. Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington says he has been urged to enter New Hampshire's primary—the first in the nation—and will visit the state later this year. The primary is in March.

Yorty, in a weekend stopover in New York, complained most of the Democratic candidates "are pulling the party too far to the left." He specifically accused Sens. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine and George McGovern of South Dakota "of harassing and trying to sabotage the President."

Jackson and Roger Crowley, last year's unsuccessful Democratic nominee for governor of New Hampshire, had invited him to enter the primary. He said he had made no commitments but plans to test the political climate later in the year.

Yorty said he cannot support any of the president potential Democratic contenders and is thinking of running himself. He said he had been assured of support by the Manchester Union Leader. Jackson's stance on most domestic issues is close to the other Democrats mentioned as possible presidential contenders. But he is to their right on the Vietnam war and military spending.

Opposition to Extending Draft Seen

By WALTER R. MEARS

AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield forecasts serious Senate opposition to a two-year extension of the draft in a debate likely to involve the use of draftees in the Vietnam war.

ger and Justices John M. Harlan, Potter Stewart and Byron R. White were in the majority with Black. Justices Thurgood Marshall, William J. Brennan Jr. and Harry A. Blackmun dissented.

This lineup was noteworthy in one special respect. It was the first time Blackmun and Burger have disagreed in a major decision. Their voting pattern has been similar previously.

Justice William O. Douglas ruled himself out of the case without giving any reason.

"It is far too late in the day to contend that the 14th Amendment prohibits only racial discrimination," Marshall said. He added:

"To me, singling out the poor to bear a burden not placed on any other class of citizens tramples the values that the 14th Amendment was designed to protect."

Recommended Red China for UN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission recommended today that Communist China be brought into the United Nations, with the continued membership of Nationalist China imperative.

This was the highlight of a report from a 50-member commission set up in connection with observing the 25th anniversary of the United Nations. The commission is under the chairmanship of Henry Cabot Lodge, President Nixon's emissary to the Vatican.

Monday, April 26, 1971

Committee is expected to complete action this week, probably Tuesday, on a bill extending the draft and eliminating future deferments for college students.

Its version would permit current undergraduates to keep their deferments until their four years of college are completed.

The House already has approved extending the draft for two years past its June 30 expiration date. Senate debate is due in about two weeks.

Mansfield said the legislation has faced a comparatively easy path so far but "This time I think it will encounter serious opposition."

He said the effort against the bill will center first on an attempt to end the Selective Service System altogether, and then, more seriously, on an effort to limit extension to one year.

In addition, Mansfield said, the issue of drafting men for service in South Vietnam appears certain to become part of the debate.

"At least one half and probably more of the casualties have been draftees," Mansfield said.

Such a development could embroil the draft issue in the larger Senate controversy over the war itself. Action is due later on legislation to forbid U.S. spending for the conflict after the end of this year.

Mansfield said he intends to vote against any extension. "I have never voted for a draft bill, and I don't intend to vote for this one," he said.

Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., also is working for an end to the draft and the substitution of an all-volunteer armed force.

"I cannot stress too strongly the profound weakening of our social fiber, the undermining of the individual's faith in his government and his hope for the future the military draft incalculates," Hatfield said.

A Total Electric home can give you more time out with the girls or boys.

Everyone in the family benefits from Total Electric Living, and here's how.

Mom spends less time in the kitchen and laundry, and the time she does spend there is more comfortable. A Total Electric kitchen is so much cooler. She spends less time housecleaning, too, because a Total Electric home is completely flameless. And that means cleaner draperies, cleaner walls, cleaner house.

Dad spends less time and money with repair work because a Total Electric home requires little or no maintenance.

The kids have cleaner air to breathe because flameless electricity is the cleanest source of energy.

And there's more room for everyone because an electric heating and air conditioning system takes up less space.

If you aren't living in a Total Electric home, you aren't really living.

Friday Music Club

Miss Virginia Queen of the music department at Ouachita Baptist University was the guest artist when the Friday Music Club paid tribute to Arkansas composers at a meeting on April 23 in the home of Mrs. H.A. Spraggins. Introduced by Mrs. Clarence Geist, Miss Queen played a number of her compositions ranging from simple combinations of familiar melodies to "Modes" and a teaching exercise is sharps. A recent scherzo and three mood pieces completed her program.

The nominating committee submitted the following slate of officers that was accepted by acclamation of the members: president, Mrs. Helen Hatch; first vice-president, Mrs. James McLarty; second vice-president, Mrs. Calvin Smith; third vice-president, Mrs. Joe Eason; recording secretary, Mrs. E.A. Pendergraft; treasurer, Mrs. Donald Mushtare; auditor, Mrs. McDowell Turner; parliamentarian, Mrs. Clarence Geist; choral director, Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr.; pianist, Mrs. Arthur Strech; librarian, Mrs. B.C. Hyatt; historian, Mrs. W. W. White; Junior Music Club counselor Mrs. C.C. McNeill.

Plans were made for the observance of National Music Week May 2-8 and for attending the state convention in Pine Bluff April 30-May 1. The history of the Hymn of the Month, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," was told by Mrs. G.G. Medders before the club sang it.

Crabapple blossoms were attractively arranged in the home, where Mrs. Spraggins and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Arthur Wimmell and Mrs. W.E. White, served sherbet and cake to 23.

Perrytown Extension

Mrs. Clyde Winemiller entertained the Perrytown Extension Homemakers Club Tuesday evening, April 20. She had beautiful red roses as decoration in the home.

Mrs. Jimmy Daniels, president, called the meeting to order, and the group sang "Take Time to be Holy." The co-hostess, Mrs. Tom Gray, read the first Psalm for the devotion. Mrs. Earl Martin gave a leader's report.

The roll call was answered by telling how to select carpeting. The hostess taught the lesson on floor covering and "What's New in Carpeting." In doing so she displayed samples of the very latest in carpeting.

There were 16 members and 2 visitors, Mrs. C.W. Winemiller and Mrs. Glendon Huckabee. Sandwiches and sherbet were served for refreshments. The meeting was brought to a close by the president, Mrs. Daniels.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Radio-Television Writer NEW YORK (AP) — A famous editor, teaching a course in writing, has his students read and reread certain novels five times. The fifth reading, he says, is a crashing bore, but it reveals the bare bones of the author's plot.

Television drama is not quite as stubborn. Watching one rerun usually is quite sufficient and all too often the bones are very visible at first sight.

Sunday night's "Bonanza" on NBC was a repeat showing of an episode about a teen-age boy vindicating the reputation of his dead father as a rainmaker. The story established a warm relationship between the senior Cartwright and the youngster, but the basic plot was an acceptable variation of TV's hybridized Western form.

In this case the boy was roughed up by drought-stricken farmers instead of bad guys, but the rain appeared finally and the Cartwrights came to the rescue—just as the viewer knew they would.

The series form, of course, has certain built-in limitations. No matter how serious the mess, the viewer knows that nothing drastic will happen to any series star. Ben, Little Joe and Hoss of Bonanza often are beaten up, winged by bullets and charged with murder, but we all know it isn't serious and they'll be back, good as new, next week.

A predictable plot often is better viewing than rambling tale that relies on characterization and message. "The Bold Ones" rerun Sunday was a slow-moving and shapeless hour about the defense of a

THEY DESERVE EACH OTHER?

Dear Helen: My wife never stops throwing it up to me that she was the catch of the town, and had countless proposals and a Vietnam war veteran accused of killing his best friend. The veteran flatly asserted his innocence, but would give no details.

Burl Ives had to spend a lot of time filling the hour by singing and playing his guitar before he got a hung jury with a highly unconvincing summary. But along the way we viewers were told what was kept from the courtroom: the dead man was haunted and demented by the memory of an atrocity he committed during his military service and had goaded his buddy into killing him in self defense. The silent defendant was nobly protecting his friend's memory.

It was an unusual treatment that was all flesh and practically no bones. Even familiar ones, are better.

There are no lineal descendants of Shakespeare. All his grandchildren died childless and his last direct descendant died in 1670.

hundred men to choose from. She conveniently forgets (until I remind her) that those "proposals" weren't all with marriage in mind, and it was the result of one such that I married her.

Then she starts throwing things. Mostly verbal. As you can see, Helen, it is not a good marriage. We both go out of our way to hurt each other.

It started off wrong. My wife (then single) was pregnant by a man who left town suddenly when she told him. I didn't know this, when we met, but in all fairness, I must say she confessed before our wedding. I had this protective thing about her and swore it would make no difference.

Well, she had a miscarriage, and life went quite smoothly for over a year. Then, in a fit of anger, she told me she never loved me—I was just a way out.

Maybe love can't die of just one blow, but it happened with me. From that day on—warfare. I've excused my actions with, "She deserves it." My actions have included several unsatisfactory flings with women who probably disliked me as much as my wife does. She retaliates with that old "Queen of the prom" jazz.

We'd split up but there's a baby on the way. Oh yes, it's mine (though I've told her I had my doubts). We loved each other, then—or at least I thought we did.

I always thought a divorce was easy—until it started happening to us. Do we try to make it, or—CALL IT QUITS?

Dear Clq: My "I.G.A.P. (I'm Guessing

Again Perception!" says that if you and your wife would level with each other, you might find love isn't as dead as you think. If you no longer cared, would you bother with all this hurting and fighting?

You say that one sentence, shouted in anger, killed your marriage. Don't you know a furious woman goes for the jugular, never mind the truth? I'll bet she tried hard to explain, but your pride closed her out.

So you "got even," and she sniped back by making you feel even more inferior, and the war was on.

Why don't you both concede that the score is even, sit down and talk as you've never talked before? Hopefully, you'll discover you want to stay together because you still care, not simply for the sake of the baby (a dangerous reason).—H

Dear Helen: A friend told me that if you don't wear a bra, you're more likely to get cancer, and you become saggy earlier. Is this true? —K.J.

Dear K: First: Not true. Second: Probable, if you are the pendulous type. Muscles that support the breast are paper thin and need all the help they can get. Once they stretch from too much weight, there's no bringing back their elasticity.—H.

Dear Helen: I heard that if you have a vasectomy it's only good for seven years. Same with a woman who gets her tubes tied. Right?—Mr. T.

Dear Mr. T.: Wrong! Only a doctor can reverse these operations, and then only part of the time.

My doctor had a busy time this week: I call him on HHU questions so much he never knows any more whether I have a pain or a problem.—H.

K.C. Rolling, Beats Indians by 6 to 4

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Wally Bunker and Jerry May are months ahead of their 1970 calendar pace ... and everything's up to date again in Kansas City.

May's first American League homer climaxed a six-run flurry in the first inning and carried Bunker to his first pitching victory of the season Sunday as the Kansas City Royals trimmed the Cleveland Indians 6-4.

Last year, Bunker didn't win a game for the Royals until Sept. 1 and May didn't hit a home run for the Pittsburgh Pirates until Oct. 1—the final day of the National League season.

The Royals, bidding for a .500 finish in their third AL go-round, are on course, with a 9-9 early season mark, following the completion of a three-game sweep over the sagging Indians.

Elsewhere, Boston nipped the Chicago White Sox 5-4 for its fifth straight victory, Baltimore drubbed California 7-1, Detroit cooled off Oakland 10-2, Minnesota riddled the New York Yankees 8-0 and Washington edged Milwaukee 3-2 in 10 innings.

In the NL, Pittsburgh downed San Francisco 6-2, the Chicago Cubs mauled the New York Mets 9-3, St. Louis shaded Philadelphia 5-4, Montreal tipped Houston 2-1, Los Angeles divided a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning 4-2 and bowing 2-0, and Atlanta split with San Diego, taking the 10-inning nightcap 4-3 after a 3-2 loss.

May, traded from the Pirates to Kansas City last winter, completed the Royals' first inning assault against winless Steve Hargan with a two-run wallop over the left field fence. Ed Kirkpatrick's three-run homer and a run-scoring double by Joe Keough were the other big blows.

Carl Yastrzemski drew a bases-loaded walk from rookie Don Eddy in the eighth inning, breaking a 4-4 deadlock at Boston and keeping the Red Sox one-half game behind first place Baltimore in the East Division.

Yastrzemski belted a two-run homer in the first, extending his hitting streak to 11 games. Red Sox shot to a 4-0 lead. But Chicago bounced back to knot it on two-run blasts by Tom Egan and Mike Andrews. Baltimore's Jim Palmer breezed to his third victory without a loss, checking the Angels on six hits and contributing a two-run single to the Orioles' attack.

Dick McAuliffe drove in five runs with a homer and double as the Tigers halted Oakland's winning streak at even games. Bill Freehan and Willie Horton also homered for Detroit and southpaw Mickey Lolich held the A's to three hits in the seven innings he worked.

The Twins blitzed the Yankees behind the two-hit pitching of Jim Kaat and Tony Oliva's third and fourth homers of the three-game series. Oliva's bases-empty shot off Fritz Peterson in the second inning gave Kaat, 2-0, the only run he needed.

Tom McCraw, who had doubled in the ninth and scored the tying run on Dick Billings' pinch single, stroked a run-scoring single in the 10th to send the Senators past Milwaukee. Don Wert scored the winning run after punching a leadoff single in his first time at bat this season.

Montreal Tops Nat'l East

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Montreal Expos—the first-place Montreal Expos, s'il vous plait—are one-up against the rest of the National League East for the first three weeks of 1971 and one-up on the Houston Astros for the last two years.

In their first two seasons, the Flying Frenchmen of baseball managed to win only two of 12 games in the Astrodome. They bettered that lowly mark Sunday with a 2-1 victory behind Bill Stoneman's three-hit pitching and a sweep of a three-game series.

"I doubt if I've ever been with a club which swept a series in Houston since Philadelphia did it 1962," said manager Gene Mauch. "We won 17 in a row from Houston that year before losing the final game and I can tell you here and now that a sweep in the Astrodome is a great feeling."

Elsewhere in the NL, Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco 6-2, Cincinnati blanked Los Angeles 2-0 after the Dodgers took the opener 4-2, St. Louis rallied for three runs in the ninth inning and beat Philadelphia 5-4, the Chicago Cubs trounced the New York Mets 9-3 and San Diego and Atlanta split a doubleheader, the Padres winning 3-2 and the Braves taking the 10-inning nightcap 4-3.

Bucks Whip Bullets for No. 2

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — The Big O and the Big A stand for Oscar and Alcindor. Or, they could signify omnipresent and awesome.

Oscar Robertson seemed to be everywhere as the Milwaukee Bucks crushed the Baltimore Bullets 102-83 Sunday and took a 2-0 lead in the National Basketball Association's best-of-7 title series.

The third game will be played in Milwaukee Wednesday night, with the Bucks trying to become the second team in the 25-year history of the NBA to sweep the championship series. The only other was Boston over Minneapolis in 1958-59.

The Big O, who has never played for a championship team in 10 previous seasons, scored 22 points, had 10 assists and six rebounds, and held Baltimore's Earl Monroe to 11 points.

Low Alcindor, who is listed at 7-foot-2 but is at least two inches taller, scored 27 points, grabbed 24 rebounds, and intimidated the Bullets on defense.

While Alcindor and Robertson provided almost half of Milwaukee's points, the Bullets were raving about their defense.

"Every time you make a move to the hoop," said Jack Marin, who topped Baltimore with 22 points, "you run right into that giant oak tree in the middle."

"You just can't make any penetration, and you can't beat anybody by taking 20-footers all night."

Most of the Bullets, gauging from their own measurements, figure Alcindor is at least 7-4 or 7-5. But center Wes Unseld, who at 6-7½ has to play the big Buck, said Alcindor "looks more 9-9 about now."

Alcindor scored eight of his points as Milwaukee ran off a 19-0 run in the third quarter.

BATTING—Dick McAuliffe, Tigers, drove in five runs with a three-run homer and a double as Detroit ended Oakland's seven-game winning streak 10-2.

19-2 streak during a 5½-minute span of the third period to break open a tight contest and move ahead 70-51.

The Bucks shot 50 per cent for the game, including a whopping 14 for 20 in the third quarter as the Bullets were going cold.

Under the policing of Robertson, Monroe made only four of 18 from the field.

Derby Run Is Saturday; Tough Pick

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Keeping track of all the Kentucky Derby hopefuls in the Churchill Downs' stable area today was almost as hard as picking a winner in Saturday's 97th running of America's most famous horse race.

Twenty Derby candidates were stabled at the historic track Sunday, with at least two still to make an appearance.

Arthur A. Seeliger Jr.'s unconscious was due to arrive from California today while Frank J. Caldwell's Jim French, the winter book favorite, is expected in from New York Thursday.

As many as 25 could go to the post in the 1¼-mile, $125,000-added Derby. But one Derby insider felt 17, the number of 1970 starters, would be a more realistic figure.

Whatever the number of starters, there are more than enough horses to keep the traditional Derby Week arguments burning. And this year there is an extra ingredient to fan the flames—four missing 3-year-olds.

Not here are the injured Hoist The Flag, who had been the strong early Derby favorite; His Majesty; Good Behavior, a triple stakes winner who was not nominated for the Derby; and Executioner, a double stakes winner whose owner chokes to skip the Derby.

Of the candidates remaining, nine have won nine different Derby prep races. A 10th is assured Tuesday with the running of the one-mile Derby Trial, the final prep.

Derby candidates expected in the trial are George Holsinger's Bopdavelle, A.H. Sullivan's Fouralla, J.L. and R.W. Losen's Prospect Hill, and Fritz' and Sechrest's Vegas Vic. Two outside Derby prospects set for the trial are Philip Teinowitz' Royal Leverage and Bruno Ferrari's Jr.' Arrowhead.

With Jim French, the Santa Anita Derby winner and Unconscious, the California Derby winner, still not in town, much of the early attention Sunday was paid to the California Farm pair of Bold and Able and Eastern Fleet.

Bold and Able won the seven-furlong Stepping Stone Purse at Churchill Downs last Saturday while Eastern Fleet finished sixth in a field of seven. However, Eastern Fleet had earlier won the 1½-mile Florida Derby.

Trainer Reggie Cornell said Bold and Able and Eastern Fleet probably both will go in the Derby. "Both these horses came here first and the big thing we had in mind was getting a race over the track. So, they're on schedule."

Another entry also is likely for the Derby—the George Poole-trained pair of Wendel P. Rosso's Impetuosity, the Blue Grass Stakes winner, and Pastoral Stable's Twist the Axe, the Arkansas Derby winner who was second in the Blue Grass.

Hog Offense Overpowers Defense

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —The Arkansas offensive unit overpowered the defense during an two-hour scrimmage here Saturday afternoon.

The first unit scored 26 points while the second team scored 13. The third and fourth units combined for 12 points during the drill.

"Our offense is a little ahead of the defense," said head Coach Frank Broyles. "We've got four defensive backs and four defensive tackles hurt, and we're only playing one defense."

Quarterback Joe Ferguson took his team 65 yards on 15 plays for the first touchdown. Tailback Jon Richardson went in for the TD from the two-yard line.

North Stars
Win Over Canadiens
By PAT THOMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Montreal Canadiens felt today like the Boston Bruins must have felt in their recent Stanley Cup quarter-final.

In seven games, the Canadiens beat out the Bruins—regular season East Division champions who were favored to take their second straight National Hockey League championship.

Then the Canadiens came up against the Minnesota North Stars, representing the West Division that had never beaten an established club in the playoffs after 16 futile tries.

Montreal, as expected, routed the North Stars 7-2 in the first game last Tuesday night. But the North Stars rebounded for the record West victory Thursday night, 6-3.

The Canadiens romped Saturday night 6-3 as the series moved to Minnesota.

The North Stars, however, amazed their followers and the Canadiens Sunday night by pulling out a 5-2 victory on Cesare Maniago's goaltending and clutch third period goals by J.P. Parise and Murray Oliver.

Parise tipped in the tie-breaker with three minutes gone in the third period, sending the best-of-7 series back to Montreal for the fifth game Tuesday night. The series returns to Minnesota Thursday night.

The Canadiens took the first opportunity with just 82 seconds gone in the game when Jean Beliveau scored the first of his two goals.

But Oliver batted in a rebound to tie and Danny Grant converted another for a 2-1 first period lead after two Minnesota power plays. Beliveau, assisted again by the swift Yvan Cournoyer, tied it 2-2 in the second period and the team headed into the third period.

Claude Larose, a former North Star who fired high on a breakaway, hit the crossbar early in the third period.

Bobby Rousseau, traded from Montreal to Minnesota in the off-season, was stopped on a shot that goalie Ken Dryden kicked out. Parise was in the right position and blasted in the tie-breaker.

Oliver blasted in his second goal for a 4-2 lead at 11:26 and Ted Hampson added the fifth Minnesota at 15:59.

Nicklaus Wins in a Walk

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
RANCHO LA COSTA, Calif. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus' mind still was on his defeat at the Masters when he teed off in the final round of the MONY Tournament of Champions Sunday.

"I wasn't pleased with the way I've been finishing lately," Nicklaus said. "I think I've been paying too much attention to the scoreboard and not enough attention to myself."

"So I told my caddy, 'Let's do something different. Don't tell me what anybody else is doing. I just want to go out and play my game and not worry about what anyone else is doing.'"

He didn't have to worry, shooting a final round 70 for 279 and a huge, eight-stroke victory in this event that brings together four champions from the last 12 months. It was the biggest winning margin in more than two years.

Nicklaus took a double bogey that really didn't mean anything at all. He was all alone as he had been all day. His quick burst out of the gate, and the troubles encountered by everyone else, left no element of suspense, no drama.

It simply was Nicklaus all alone. He finished at 279, nine under par. It was eight strokes back to a group of three tied at 287—South African Gary Player, Australian Bruce Devlin and Dave Stockton.

With Nicklaus, they were the only players to break par on the 7,114-yard, par 72 layout that features deep, clinging rough and pipeline fairways. Player and Stockton had 72s and Devlin took a 73.

Gene Littler, 71, was alone at 288, and Bobby Nicholas had a 71 for 289. Charles Coody, who won the Masters and destroyed Nicklaus' hopes of a professional grand slam this year, took a 75 for 290. Arnold Palmer had a 73-295 and U.S. Open champion Tony Jacklin of England was one of 11 who failed to break 300. He had a 74 for 301.

It was Nicklaus' 32nd victory on the American tour, along with two British Open titles, two national team titles and four World Series of Golf triumphs.

The $33,000 first place check pushed his earnings to over $102,000 in only seven starts and him just behind Palmer on the money-winning list.

Schoterman Is Star of Penn Relays

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The biggest upset at the 77th annual Penn Relays this past weekend was in the selection of the most valuable performer at the two-day track and field meet.

When it was announced that Al Schoterman of Kent State was the MVP, one veteran track writer exclaimed: "Al Schoterman! My stopwatch! What happened to Marty Liquori?"

Schoterman's performance was excellent. He threw the hammer 219 feet, 4 inches for a new NCAA and meet record. But that was it. He watched the rest of the meet.

What apparently bothered most writers at the meet was that they had voted Liquori the outstanding performer 9-1. Then, meet officials apparently took it upon themselves to change the decision.

Actually, the name of the game at the Penn Relays is RELAYS. It's sort of like a three-ring circus with the main attraction in the center ring. The relay races are in the center ring. Everything else is a side show.

Liquori, the Villanova senior, anchored three winning relay teams — the distance medley, two and four miles. In the past three years he has been on eight winning teams at the annual Penn show.

The award is insignificant in the overall scheme of the relays, but the consensus is to do away with the designation if creating a record in a one-shot field event is to overshadow the theme of the meet — relay.

While Villanova won three relays, it was a disappointing two days for the cats from Philadelphia's Main Line. Their winning streak ended at 17, when an unheralded South Carolina quartet beat them to the tape in the spring medley.

The defeat was the first in a major race for Villanova at the Penn Relays since a loss to Rice in the 1967 mile, last event on that program. Villanova won five titles in each of the next three years, and two this past weekend, before the sprint medley. Villanova came back to take the two-mile race as Liquori laught Manhattan freshman Joe Savage a lesson in tactics. The Villanova had run a 4:07.9 on the anchor of a four-mile relay, while Savage was fresh. So, when they reached the stretch of the two-mile shoulder-to-shoulder, Liquori weaved a little, throwing the Manhattan runner off stride. It's legal as long as you don't leave your lane or make contact.

Petty Wins Virginia 250 by a Hair

By BLOYS BRITT
AP Auto Racing Writer
Old pro Richard Petty recorded his 127th career victory, though it was a controversial one, and 26-year-old Mike Mosley won his first in the auto racing season roared into high gear Sunday.

At Riverside, Calif. Australian Frank Matish, who finished second in each heat, won the Continental 5000 Grand Prix on an over-all basis.

Petty drove his Plymouth home a bare second ahead of David Pearson's Ford in a 250-mile NASCAR Grand National stock car race at Martinsville, Va., then stood by as Pearson filed a protest claiming that Petty drove the last 18 laps minus the cap on his fuel tank—a violation of the rules.

It was Petty's eighth triumph of the season in 14 starts and, if he keeps it, the first prize check of $6,225 will put his earnings past the $112,000 mark and closer to a career total of $1 million.

There was no controversy attached to Mosley's runaway victory in the Trenton 200, final warmup for next month's Indianapolis 500 for USAC's speedy championship cars.

The stocky blond from Brownsburg, Ind., finished almost five miles ahead of Wally Dallenbach of East Brunswick, N.J., as a chilled crowd of 22,000 and an ABC television audience watched.

It marked the first appearance in victory circle in six years for a car built by A.J. Watson, the former king of the USAC roadsters in the early 1960s.

Indiana and Utah at 3 Games Each

By JIM CHURCH
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Indiana coach Bob Leonard calls it "be aggressive." Utah coach Bob Sharman calls it "muscling."

Indiana's physical brand of basketball helped the Pacers hold off a Utah rally for a 105-102 victory Saturday night, knotting the American Basketball Association Western Division playoffs at three games each.

Indiana, which battled back after trailing 3-1 in the series, will have the home court advantage Wednesday night in the seventh and final game.

The winner goes into the ABA final playoffs against Kentucky, which took the Eastern Division playoffs from Virginia, 4-2.

Utah, missing layups, five-footers and even stuff shots, was outshot by Indiana from the floor, 52 per cent to 45. Utah held a 56-54 edge in rebounds, thanks to 20 by Zelmo Beaty, who scored 32 points.

Sharman thought his players were intimidated.

When his team was down 3-1, Leonard said his players would have to shoot better and "become more aggressive." They did both.

Indiana was called for 25 fouls and Utah, 22.

Fourth-quarter heroics by Mel Daniels, Roger Brown and Bill Keller put the game away for Indiana.

Utah, trailing by as much as 10 early in the fourth quarter, pulled to within 93-92 with 3:58 left. But Brown and Daniels, putting in rebounds and foul shots, kept Indiana on top with eight of the Pacers' last 12 points.

Bob Netolicky hit a free throw and Keller added three straight to wrap up the game 105-100 with 10 seconds left.

Daniels, the ABA's most valuable player, put a scare into the Pacer bench halfway through the third quarter when he fell on his right arm. But he had his wrist taped and returned early in the final period.

Keller scored 28, Brown 20 and Daniels 12. Netolicky hit 15 and husky Warren Armstrong, who started at guard instead of Freddie Lewis, scored 18.

Black Hawks Play Rangers Next in Chi

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Those well-traveled hockey players from Chicago are back home today, awaiting the fifth game of their National Hockey League Stanley Cup semifinal against New York and confident they can do as well on their own ice as they did on the Rangers' pond.

The Black Hawk commuters blasted the Rangers 7-1 in Sunday's nationally televised fourth game, squaring the series at two games each. Game five is in Chicago Tuesday and game six in New York Thursday. A seventh, if needed, would be in Chicago next Sunday.

"It's a two of three series now," noticed Stan Mikita, who had a goal and an assist in Sunday's romp, "and we've got two out of three coming up at home."

The Hawks like their home ice. In fact, they like it so much that they flew back there after losing last Thursday's third game so that they could practice at home Friday and Saturday. Then they flew back to New York for game four.

Bobby Hull, who picked up three assists for his first scoring points of this series, was asked if he thought the commutation was a good idea.

"You'd have to say so fater the results," said Hull. "We played our best game of the series."

Hull and Mikita led the Black Hawks' blitz with six shots apiece and although Bobby did not score any goals, he formed a major part of Chicago's attack.

The cause Hull and the other Hawks are for is Chicago's first appearance in the Stanley Cup finals since 1965. The Hawks last won the cup in 1961.

The other semifinal series between Minnesota and Montreal also was tied up at 2-2 on Sun-

Foster Decisions Anderson

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Yancey "Yank" Durham trains fighting bulls, manly ring scrappers like heavyweight champion Joe Frazier.

Ray Anderson doesn't fit the mold.

"I'm disgraced," said Yank, "to be associated with a man who'll run like that."

The 26-year-old Anderson fought with all the fire of Fred Astaire in Saturday night's light heavyweight title bout against champion Bob Foster.

"Hook, Ray, please hook," cried Frazier, flown in for moral support. "Get your head down ... bear in ... hit him more than once at a time."

Frazier, the master slugger, never seemed to get his message across to the kid from Akron, Ohio, who recently joined up at Durham's boxing camp in Philadelphia.

"I give up, Ray," Frazier said after 11 rounds, throwing up his hands. "You fight your own way. You're obviously gonna do that anyway."

Foster plodded after his elusive target for 15 rounds and caught him often enough to pile up an unanimous decision in the nationally televised bout at Curtis/Hixon Hall.

"It was the easiest title defense I've had," said Foster, who has retained his slightly-tarnished crown for a sixth time.

"There ain't no light heavyweight who can shake me. It was a lopsided fight and I won easy."

The Washington, D.C., product now has a 43-5 record. Anderson fell to 33-6-1.

Anderson may have lost more than the fight, too, since the gray-thatched Durham threatened to drop him after a one-bout tieup.

"When a fighter won't do what you tell him," said Durham, "I wash my hands of him."

Ralston Wins Over Australian

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Many observers whispered it in the stands Friday night, when he lost his opening singles match to John Newcombe after having him on the ropes.

"Same old Ralston," they said. "He can't win the pressure matches."

Dennis Ralston, the 28-year-old Californian who experienced both jubilant triumph and haunting defeat as an American Davis Cup player in the mid-60s, proved the doomsayers wrong Sunday and emerged as the hero of America's 4-3 triumph over Australia in the $30,000 World Cup Tennis competition at Boston College.

Ralston survived two match points against him and defeated Roy Emerson, an old nemesis and Australia's all-time Davis Cup hero, 6-1, 6-7, 7-6, in the decisive sixth match of the best-of-seven Davis Cup-style series between teams of professionals from the United States and Australia.

Ralston's triumph gave the U.S. team an unbeatable 4-2 lead and foiled the effort of Newcombe, the reigning Wimbledon champ, who beat Arthur Ashe of Miami in the fifth match, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, to keep the Aussies alive.

The North Stars squared it by defeating the Canadiens 5-2. Chicago, down 2-1 in games, needed No. 4 desperately and came out to get it by forechecking and keeping the Rangers bottled up in their own end of the ice. Jim Pappin's goal midway through the opening period gave the Hawks the early lead and took care of an adage that coaches stress.

"You always like to get the first goal," said Billy Reay, Chicago's coach. "It gets you off on the right foot."

Distance Runners Star at Meet

By DAN EVEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The feats of distance ace Frank Shorter and the lack of success of injury-riddled Texas A and M were the chief track topics in the wake of the 62nd Drake Relays.

Shorter, 25, was the overwhelming choice as the meet's outstanding performer after record-setting victories in the three and six-mile runs.

Crack A and M relay teams toted home only one victory in the baton events—and that after two other teams were disqualified and a fourth failed to finish.

The Aggies came to Drake seeking Midwest "triple crowns"—victories in the Texas, Kansas and Drake relays—in the 440 and 880-yard relays, but had to settle for fifths in both events.

Muscle pulls to Rocky Woods and Marvin Mills in Friday's preliminaries left A and M with only half of the team that set a world record 1:21.7 in the 880 here last year.

The Aggies managed to win the 480-yard shuttle hurdles relay in :58.7 after Notre Dame and Michigan State were disqualified and Illinois didn't finish.

Michigan State, however, equalled the national collegiate and Drake record with a :56.7 qualifying heat.

Texas A and M had won the 880 at Texas in 1:22.7 and at Kansas in 1:22.1 and had been expected to challenge the world mark on Drake's red Tartan track.

Instead, Indiana took the 440 in :40.2 and Abilene Christian the 880 in 1:23.9.

Shorter, 25, dethroned Florida Track Club teammate Jack Bachelor Friday in the three-mile in 13:07 and then came back Saturday to nip Minnesota's Garry Bjorklund by three-tenths of a second in the six-mile with 27:24.6.

Bjorklund's 27:24.9 was a national collegiate record, while Shorter's time was the fastest run in the world this year—and third fastest ever by an American.

Eastern Michigan set the only baton record in the 14 relays with a 9:43.4 victory in the distance medley.

Abilene Christian was a double winner in the university division by taking the 880 and the mile (3:05.6), while Texas Southern won half of the six college relays with victories in the 440 (:40), 880 (1:23.9) and spring medley 3:17.9.

New Drake records went to Rodney Milburn of Southern in the 120-yard high hurdles (:13.5) Brigham Young's Raimo Pihl in the javelin (255-3), Al Feuerbach in the federation shot put (65-9 3/4) and Mike Bowers in the federation high jump 7-4 1/2.

Also Dave Roberts of Rice and Tom Craig of Oklahoma in the pole vault (17-0), Pat Matzdorf of Wisconsin the university-college high jump (7-13 1/4) Jerome Liebenberg of Western Michigan in the 3,000-meter steeplechase (8:43.8) and Bruce Mortenson in the marathon (2:27:23.7).

Drake performers also held a 15-5 edge over competitors at the 77th Penn Relays in comparable events.

Opening lead—♦ J

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Oswald: "In JACOBY MODERN the opening two clubs is our only forcing bid. It covers certain strong no-trump hands and all hands that are opened two of any suit in standard American."

Jim: "The initial response is also artificial. Two diamonds shows 0-3 high-card points and is forcing to one trick below game. The other responses also show high-card points and are forcing to game. Two hearts shows 4-6; two spades 7-9; two no-trump 10-12, and three clubs 13 or more."

Oswald: "South has a mighty fine two bid, but he realizes that since his partner's responses denies more than 3 high-card points, there is no slam. There may not even be a game but South decides to gamble that he will be able to develop a 10th trick somewhere."

Jim: "A spade lead would have been delightful, but West opens a diamond and South has to try to scramble for the 10th trick."

Oswald: "He will get it if he leads the king of spades at trick two. West will win and probably make his best return of a low trump. South will win and lead a second spade. It won't matter who wins that one. East hasn't a trump to lead and if West leads a second trump he will lose his king."

Jim: "It should be noted that a low spade lead at trick two would allow East to gain the lead and play a trump to defeat the contract."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Doesn't Reduce Cholesterol

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D. of your kidneys or even diabetes.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I read your article recently regarding cholesterol. It was very enlightening to learn that cholesterol was not a fat but an alcohol. I would like to know what effect alcohol, taken in moderation, would have on the arteries.

Dear Reader—Cholesterol from an organic chemist's point of view is an alcohol, but since it has a large number of carbon atoms in it, it is classified as a large molecule which causes it to be solid. In Greek, "chole" means bile and "steros" means solid. It is formed by the liver and flows in the bile into the intestines. There it joins with any cholesterol in the food that you eat and part of this combined cholesterol pool is absorbed from the intestine back into the bloodstream. Here it joins with fat particles and part of the combination may end up being deposited in the arteries to cause atherosclerosis.

Drinking alcohol (a small molecule with only two carbon atoms) has no beneficial effect in preventing atherosclerosis unless a person drinks so much alcohol he has liver damage. In this case, the amount of cholesterol produced by the liver may be diminished. An individual who drinks enough alcohol to produce this effect, however, usually has serious liver disease which in itself may cause death.

Alcohol can damage the pancreas and the brain and cause gastritis. Alcohol is a toxin (poison) to the heart muscle and individuals who drink a lot of alcohol may develop heart failure from its effect.

In addition, alcohol has lots of calories. In fact, it has more calories than carbohydrates or proteins and only a bit fewer calories than pure fat. This is why the person who drinks a lot of alcohol in addition to a substantial diet is usually fat and often has atherosclerosis with subsequent heart disease.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I am a healthy, hard-working man nearly 75 years old and my trouble is that my kidneys work every 30 minutes to an hour in the daytime and about every two hours at night and every time I go near running water. The only habit I have is smoking cigars. What do you recommend to ease the aggravation?

Dear Reader—You should go see your doctor. It is possible that your condition is caused by an enlarged prostate gland. The obstruction caused by the prostate gland causes the bladder to be overdistended and is associated with a frequent desire to urinate.

If the amount of urine being passed each time is of normal or considerable quantity, you may have an important change in function.

Rebels in E. Pakistan Avoid Fight

By DENNIS NEEDLE
Associated Press Writer
CALCUTTA, India (AP) — The "Provisional Government of Bangla Desh," the leaders of the rebellion in East Pakistan, has ordered its forces to avoid set battles with the Pakistani army and to launch instead an underground guerrilla campaign, authoritative sources reported today.

In an attempt to prevent Maoist extremists taking over the guerrilla movement, leaders of the fight are urging Awami league politicians who fled to India to return to East Pakistan to lead the battle.

It is one month since President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan's troops went into action against Sheikh Mujibur Rahman's Awami league and the Bangla Desh movement seeking independence from the West Pakistanis who dominate the central government.

Reinforced mainly by air to a strength in the region of 70,000, Yahya Khan's tough Punjabi troops have seized most of East Pakistan's key towns and terrorized much of the country.

Most Bangla Desh units ran at the first crump of a mortar shell.

West of the Padma River, which cuts the province in two, resistance has crumbled everywhere before the army's superior fire power. Several thousand secessionist troops took refuge across or close to the Indian border. Members of the provisional government proclaimed the independence of Bangla Desh in the shade of a mango grove a few yards from Indian territory, appealed for foreign aid and recognition, then quietly made their way to safety in Calcutta.

East of the Padma, next to the Indian states of Assam and Tripura, the situation is less clear. India keeps most foreign newsmen out of the area, and only the highly colored reports of Indian journalists have reached the outside world.

Preacher Resorts to Billboard

By DALA MCKINSEY
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rev. Francis Wellford Hobbie, 49, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, is concerned that his generation is not providing "moral leadership" on national issues, so he bought a billboard.

"Dear Mom and Dad, Your silence is killing me. In Southeast Asia, at home, on campus," it reads.

The Rev. Mr. Hobbie says he feels "there is a lack of involvement on the part of the older generation in critical issues."

He says his generation needs to "get out of neutrality and apathy on issues creating such agony in the nation."

While he thinks the United States should pull out of the war in Vietnam, he says the purpose of the sign was merely to encourage debate.

It already has. The sign went up Saturday, and some members of his congregation expressed displeasure with the sign following Sunday's services.

He said the negative reaction came from those "who think that any debate or criticism is harmful to the government and is giving aid and support to the Communists." But on the whole, he says the church's membership appears to support his views.

"I explained that I am trying to get the adult population in the United States to break their silence, break their lethargy and speak out on some of the issues," he said.

The Rev. Mr. Hobbie says that the youth feel no leadership from adults on issues that concern him, and he says they "overreact" to situations.

The poster came from a national organization called the Clergy and Others Concerned About the War in Vietnam.

The Rev. Mr. Hobbie and his associated pastor, Rev. Guy Delaney paid $125 for the billboard out of their own pockets.

"I've never done anything like this before," the pastor said. He also said the billboard space has been rented for a month, and that appears to be "long enough."

Asks Church Schools Be Excluded

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. moved today to knock out all language from a $1.5 billion school desegregation bill authorizing some of the money for Catholic and other religious schools.

The North Carolina Democrat, considered one of the Senate's leading constitutional experts, contends such use of federal money not only would violate the First Amendment but be bad policy.

His effort was not given much chance and neither were his other amendments aimed at busing plans used to desegregate Southern schools under court order.

The bill, now in its second week of debate, would permit some of the money to be spent in religious schools on projects designed to lessen minority-group pupil isolation. The bulk of the funds, however, would be allocated to lessen public school segregation.

Privately sponsors of the desegregation bill say it would have been hard to get it out of committee without some provision for Catholic schools.

Ervin declared federal money for religious schools "is not only unconstitutional but it is tyrannical to tax Protestants and Jews to support Catholic schools."

Misjudged Millwood Growth

Jim Cyrus, resident engineer of Millwood Dam, told the Hope Rotary Club Friday at the Town and Country, "We blew it in planning the recreational area at Millwood." He then explained that the influx of visitors had far surpassed expectation, thereby making facilities inadequate.

"Fishing is the name of the game at Millwood," he said, and with the help of Paul Choate of the Game and Fish Commission he showed slides of the area which emphasized large crowds and large catches of fish. "Three things that tourists want we have: sunshine, unspoiled scenery and friendly people," he also said.

Rotarian Vincent Foster arranged the program and introduced the speaker. President C.R. "Dick" Moore welcomed visiting Rotarians Bob Gullet of Prescott and Van Wilson of El Dorado and several guests, Joe Jeter of Gainesville, Tex., Haskell Jones, Lloyd Spencer and Homer Beyerley.
